How The Wisconsin Tobacco Quit Line Can Help Employees Quit

If counseling were provided to all United States tobacco users on a regular basis, approximately 70,000 deaths could be prevented each year. Counseling help is available to all Wisconsin residents. The Wisconsin Tobacco Quit Line [800-QUIT-NOW (800-784-8669)] is a free, professional telephone-based tobacco cessation counseling service provided to Wisconsin residents who want to quit using tobacco.

You can promote the Quit Line by placing 800-QUIT-NOW brochures throughout your facility, placing the Quit Line number on your company's Intranet, or with payroll stuffers. By taking any of these steps you could be the starting point for an employee to begin their life-saving journey.

Wisconsin Tobacco Quit Line – When you're ready to quit, we're ready to help.

The Quit Line provides free, personalized assistance from professional cessation specialists. Callers enrolled in the Quit Line's program work through a series of up to five telephone sessions, where the specialists assist callers in developing and implementing a quit plan based on their individual needs.

Callers are assisted with identifying and accessing benefits that may be available through their employer, Medicare, Medicaid, or other insurance, to cover the cost of medication(s). Services are available in Spanish and other languages. The Wisconsin Tobacco Quit Line's hours of operation are 7 a.m. to 11 p.m, daily.
