

WI Tobacco Prevention and Control Program Workshop:

Priorities for Treating Tobacco
Dependence: A Day of Learning & Skill Building

Participants will obtain information and resources to support their work in treating tobacco dependence within priority areas.

When: Monday, May 19, 2008 8:00 AM to 2:00 PM

8 am – Continental Breakfast and Registration

8:30 am – Welcome and Overview

Where: Tommy G. Thompson Youth Center
640 S. 84th Street West Allis WI

Free: No cost to attend. Lunch will be provided.

Learning Objectives:

1. Increase knowledge about Treating Tobacco Dependence utilizing the most recent treatment approaches.
2. Learn new services provided through the Wisconsin Tobacco Quit Line.
3. Enhance skills in addressing the Treatment of Tobacco Dependence within the priority areas of ATODA, Mental Health, and 18 -24 year olds.

This training is intended for Tobacco Control Coalitions, Local Public Health Departments, Health Care Providers, Substance Abuse Professionals and Community Organizations

Sponsored by the Wisconsin Tobacco Prevention and Control Program – Southeast Region Training and Technical Assistance and the University of Wisconsin-Center for Tobacco Research and Intervention (UW-CTRI)

SPACE IS LIMITED – REGISTER EARLY!

Register online by May 5th at:

<http://www.tobwis.org/coalitions/registration.php>

Tobacco Control Resource Center website: Under Trainings & Events

Questions can be directed to: Sue Marten smartenlsw@wi.rr.com or (414) 659-6147